Having reviewed the parties' pre-motion letters, dated January 19, 2022 and January 20, 2022, as well as having held an extensive conference on December 1, 2021 following review of a prior set of pre-motion letters, the Court has determined that defendants may bring their motions without the necessity of a pre-motion conference.

The parties should confer on a briefing schedule agreeable to both sides, in which no more than sixty days elapse from the filing of defendants' motions to the filing of defendants' replies.
